

The Blue Cottage Taekwon-Do Logo

On the OUTER edge is a gold ring which symbolizes our Taekwon-Do predecessors who passed on the art.

The INNER ring of blue symbolizes our devotion to the art and future generations of Taekwondoist.

LEFT is Taekwon-Do in Korean characters.

CENTER is the Black Turtle-Snake (현무/Hyeon-Mu): The ruler of the North and the guardian of the rain, hence the alternative name Usa (우사/雨師: Rain master). Its heavenly artifact is a black cylinder that is usually shaped as a long twisted walking stick. It awakens when "The King of Jushin feels 'dark rage' in his heart." When it awakens, time stops along with everything other than its master and the King of Jushin, enabling the leader of the Four Guardians to identify the King. The King of Jushin by some accounts is thought to be Gae-Baek.

Right is the fist which symbolizes General Choi's lifelong commitment to Taekwon-Do.
